Enjoy a visit to the magnificent Schönbrunn Palace and its gardens. Once the summer residence of the Hapsburgs, this beautiful estate rivals Versailles in its decoration and art.

Leave your ship and drive along the Wienzeile and the Naschtmarkt to the palace gates. There your guide will lead you into the courtyard and into the palace for this highlight tour of this spectacular, breathtaking baroque palace. Here you will see rooms where Maria Teresa walked and where Mozart played as a six-year-old for her. Enjoy the breathtaking Great Gallery with its tall windows and crystal mirrors. Visit the almost austere room of Emperor Franz Josef and many more impressive rooms. Then head into the beautiful gardens and park that stretches off into the distance. The guide will explain the concept of the gardens and you will have time to stroll through a portion before relaxing over a delicious cup of coffee before returning to the ship.
